It is just such a book as our New England boys and girls will be glad to see, for it inculcates in a pleasing manner, industry, frugality, truth, honesty, temperance, peace, kindness, fortitude, and a cheerful piety. Mr. Torrev Released.

Charles T. Torrey, a citizen of Massachusetts, imprisoned at Annapolis, Maryland, for being an .ibolitionist, after two severe examinations,. has been released under security that he will not a rain risit the limits of Maryland?

What a comment is this upon the free inesitutions of America! An American citizen attends a public Convention in one of the States of the confederacy confederacy whose constant boast is that it is the freest nation upon earth, merely for the purpose of taking notes, is neverted, searched, imprisoned and tried like a felon, because he holds to the equal freedom of all

Mr. Torrey, says the editor of the Boston Mul, who has long-been -prisonelly acquainted with him, is a most harmless moffensive man.

There is no sort of pretension that he was doing the least injury that he had said aught while in the State of Maryland, the tendency of which was in any way calculated to affect the rights of any one, but he is seen 'taking notes!' Alarm is at once excited he might 'print them,' and the North would know something more about slavery! The cry of Abolitionist is raised his pockets are examined without authority, pa-

It would seem that the order of things in Maryland is reversed. The innocent, by the voice of the people, are rendered criminals, and criminals by that voice are declared innocent! The peonle perpetrate crime with impunity, and the inoffensive citizen is tried as a felou! This is not all, after trial no evidence appearing against hem he is discharged on his giving security that he will leave the State and never return to it! And all this in the free Republic of America!

Thus does the 'dark spirit of slavery,' smokinor the breathings of liberty! Thus are we rendered a by-word, and a reproach among the nations. Are we sensible of our inconsistency of our degredation? 'Oh shame! where is thy
